

A Skylight Owner's Worst Nightmare

Nearly every prospective customer that I talk to asks a question about it. It is an issue that I go to great lengths to avoid. It is a problem that no skylight owner wants to deal with... What happens when you wake up after a stormy night and find a leaking skylight.

I have an exceptional confidence in my installation technique and I only use quality components on roof installations. I also take my time and take great care to minimize the risk of a leak taking place. This is why I do not hesitate to offer a warranty that you won't find from any of my competition. I will guarantee my work for the lifetime of my craftsmanship. If I make your roof leak, I will refund you the price you paid for me to install the skylight and I will cover all of the repairs necessary to correct the mistake. It is just that simple, I believe that using my technique leakage will never be an issue in the installation of a tubular skylight. At Sun In Lighting, taking pride in craftsmanship isn't a catch phrase or gimmick. It is what I am building my reputation on across Central Illinois one installation at a time. If you ever have any questions about leaking, feel free to get in touch with me and I can tell you what I do to avoid it.
